General information

Social semester fee

220 EUR – the social semester fee supports the student services in Leipzig as: free public transport within the city of Leipzig and the greater region, reduced prices in the cafeteria, for housing and other services, free or reduced access to a lot of sports activities at the University

Health insurance

A German student health insurance can be bought before the arrival or within the welcome week at one of the relevant German insurance companies (about 90 EUR per month, health insurance card included).

If you have bought a health insurance in your home country valid in Germany, hand in the "confirmation of health insurance coverage" (health insurance waiver)
- signed and stamped by your insurance company, at least at the day of your registration.

We will not be able to enrol you without proof of a valid health insurance.

Housing

You can apply for a room in a student dorm (offers will be sent in August resp. in February for the summer term) here. Please, wait until you get your acceptance letter as an exchange student. Exchange students get priority offers.

This website gives information about all housing possibilities, student dorm and other.

Costs for housing, groceries, material etc.

Around 700 EUR per month are necessary to cover the expenses (including rent)
