

1st International Conference on Islamic Finance in Bangladesh-2025 (1st ICIFiB 2025)

January 25, 2025 (Saturday)

Daffodil International University, Daffodil Smart City, Dhaka, Bangladesh

Hybrid Mode: (Physical & Online)

Introduction

The 1st International Conference on Islamic Finance in Bangladesh (1st ICIFiB 2025) marks a significant milestone in the field of Islamic finance, organized by Daffodil International University (DIU) in collaboration with IIUM Institute of Islamic Banking and Finance - IiIBF, Malaysia. Set to take place on January 25, 2025, this annual event aims to provide an exceptional platform for all relevant stakeholders in Islamic finance to engage in critical discussions, evaluate the current state of the industry, and address its pressing issues and challenges.

Daffodil International University, renowned for its academic excellence and commitment to innovation, leads this initiative, with IIUM Institute of Islamic Banking and Finance - IiIBF, Malaysia, serving as a strategic and academic partner. DIU's role as the main host underscores its dedication to advancing Islamic finance education and fostering meaningful collaboration among industry leaders, scholars, and policymakers. The conference is expected to attract approximately more than 500 participants, including at least 20% international attendees, showcasing a diverse and global perspective.

The conference will feature a wide range of presentations and discussions on key themes such as Islamic social finance (Zakat, Waqf, Sadaqah), the Islamic green economy, environmental sustainability, business ethics, Maqasid al-Shari'ah, Fin-Tech and digitalization of finance, Islamic wealth management, and fiscal and monetary policy. This collaborative effort includes significant organizations such as UNDP Bangladesh, the Islamic Development Bank (IsDB), Shariah based Financial Institutions including banks and non-bank financial institutions, and various governmental bodies, further enriching the conference's scope and impact.

Selected papers presented at the conference will be compiled into edited books and published in indexed and non-indexed academic journals, contributing valuable insights to the global discourse on Islamic finance. The 1st ICIFiB 2025 stands as a testament to Daffodil International University's commitment to promoting sustainable development and ethical finance through the principles of Islamic finance, fostering a brighter future for the global financial community.
