6. Information on refund of dormitory management fees (On / Off Campus)

1) Payment and Refund of Deposit

- ① The storage fee shall be paid upon first joining the dormitory within the one-year period of the bachelor's degree, and shall be refunded after the end date of joining the relevant year.
- ② The deposit shall be refunded to the account stated in the application for resignation "within two to three weeks" from the date of resignation.
- ③ Where facilities equipment is lost, damaged, or damaged, or the cleaning condition of the room is poor (including bathrooms), the compensation amount shall be deducted from the storage amount, and if the storage amount is exceeded, the excess amount shall be additionally paid.

2) Refund of dormitory fee (management fee)

- ① Quitting halfway: Refund after deducting 10% of the dormitory fee (based on regular admission) set for the semester from the remaining management fee. In addition, if you quit halfway, you are not allowed to re-enter the semester.

* However, if the remaining number of days is less than 3 weeks, it is applied as an expiration date when leaving the company and cannot be refunded.

* In the case of resignation due to enlistment, infectious diseases, immediate family nursing, and official study abroad recognized by schools (if you leave abroad), the "no penalty and re-entry" rule does not apply. (However, it is required to submit relevant evidentiary documents.)

② Retirement due: No refund of dormitory fees (including school meal fees), including cases where the remaining days are less than three weeks, and only the storage fees shall be refunded.

③ Disciplinary resignation and unauthorized resignation: Refunds shall be made after deducting 30% of the amount of dormitory expenses (based on regular admission) set for the relevant semester from the remaining management expenses.
