

NEW SOUTHBOUND POLICY MANDARIN AND SEMICONDUCTOR SHORT-TERM STUDY PROGRAM

OVERVIEW

To encourage outstanding students from the Indo-Pacific to study in Taiwan, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) initiated the New Southbound Short-term Study Program. Through this program, students will take semiconductor-related courses along with Chinese language courses at National Taipei University of Technology (NTUT) and the Chinese Language Training Center (CLTC), and received the funding from MOFA.

ELIGIBILITY

- The applicant should be a junior or senior at one of the universities in the following countries. (India, Indonesia, Vietnam, Thailand, Philippines, Singapore, Myanmar, Bangladesh, Nepal, Sri Lanka, Bhutan, Australia, New Zealand)
- The applicant should not be a PRC (including Hong Kong and Macau) or a Taiwan (ROC) passport holder.
- The applicant should not be a recipient of other financial aid from the government, agencies or educational institutions of Taiwan.

FUNDING

- Air ticket
- Living expenses
- Housing
- Tuition fees

More Information

Email : cltc@mail.ntut.edu.tw
Tel : (+886)02-2771-2171#1710