I . Points to Note

- Academic calendar in Japan starts from April. For details of the academic calendar in Waseda, please refer to Academic Calendar.
- Admission is either in April (Spring) or September (Fall) with your choice of duration of study, one-semester or one-year. However, some schools(majors) set particular semester of enrollment / duration of study (for example, for the April admission of School of International Liberal Studies (SILS) , students can choose “one semester” only). Please refer to the “Lists of Schools \(Requirements\)” for details.
- Once enrolled in Waseda University, the student is expected to complete the given exchange period. Extension or shortening of the period is NOT permitted.
- In principle, those who have participated in Waseda University's exchange program before CANNOT re-apply to the same School / Graduate School, unless under unforeseen circumstances. In such cases, please be sure to consult us in advance.
- As long as you fulfill the requirements, you may choose any of the schools in Waseda as your choice. Please be sure that each school sets different requirements, so carefully check the details in the “Lists of Schools \(Requirements\)”.
- Dormitories for exchange students are located a few minutes' walk from the Waseda campus. Since they are extremely popular, only a limited number of students can move in. Please note that we cannot meet all students' requests.

For students looking for housing during their stay in Japan, the Dormitory Desk, Student Affairs Section \(Former Residence Life Center\) website introduces the affiliated companies that offer significant number of student dormitories, shared houses and apartments that are easy for overseas students to apply for. Please make sure to do your own search and make your decision. However, as many of these accommodations are located in areas that require a commute of 40-60 minutes by public transport, we recommend you search for a room as soon as possible to find one that is close to your requirements.

- Applicants who are expected to graduate from their home university before the specified date are NOT eligible to apply for Waseda Exchange programs.

[Specified Date]

- One Semester Enrollment (Spring 2026 only)

You cannot apply if you are expected to graduate before September 15, 2026.

- One Semester Enrollment (Fall 2026 only)

You cannot apply if you are expected to graduate before March 15, 2027.

- One Year Enrollment (Spring 2026 + Fall 2026)

You cannot apply if you are expected to graduate before March 15, 2027.

II. General Requirements

V. Procedures for the Academic Accommodation Due to Your Disability

1. Outlines

- If you need to apply for an Academic Accommodation due to your disability, you need to complete a specific procedure in advance.
- Please make sure that these applications are limited to requests for ACADEMIC considerations (e.g. when taking courses, taking exams, etc.) . Please do not include here requests for accommodations in daily life; those should be answered when you apply to the dormitories offered by the Dormitory Desk, Student Affairs Section (Former Residence Life Center).
- Waseda University cannot provide you with any accommodations beyond what you actually receive at your Home University. Furthermore, note that your application would be judged based on Waseda University's own standards, so there may be cases our answer does not meet your requests.
- In case there was any change regarding the situation of your disability AFTER the application and thereby need to change your application contents of your Academic Accommodations, please contact us separately.

- The following cases are UNLIKELY to be approved as reasonable academic accommodations in Waseda.

- To replace attendance with reports.
- To replace in-person exams with reports/online exams.

(In case you decide to decline your study abroad program, please contact us as soon as possible.)

4) After arriving in Japan

•After arriving in Japan, please do not forget to contact your faculty office in Waseda to inform them that you actually need to receive the accommodations you applied for at the time of application. - will be provided after the distribution of this letter upon agreement of each faculty member.)
- Please be aware that, depending on the situation of the class, there may be cases in which the details of “the special needs request letters” would be executed in a slightly different form.
  - If you did not request any specific support/consideration at the beginning of semester and encounter something that may require special assistance in the middle of the semester, please inform the school office of your circumstances. You will need to follow the same procedures as above in such a case. Please be sure that the services cannot be provided retroactively.
